Taking the line-up man for man, it looks good, and should render a good account of itself. It is rather light in the center of the line, but is fairly heavy towards the flanks.

General opinion on the campus is not as optimistic, however, as the views of the fighting leaders of the Yaie eleves. One of the coaches who declined to be personally duoted said: "It all depends on how well the team gets a start. If the eleven finds itself the first fire min-utes it will crush the Tigers. If it gets of badly, fumbles or misses its combina-tions, it's good-night. Ell. The first few minutes—the first half dozen plays will tell the story."

Princeton. Nov. 14.—The Princeton eleven left this afternoon for Greenwich, where the players will spend the night before continuing to New Haven tomorrow for the annual Yale game.

Ten to swen is the ruling odds. with the Tiger the favorite tonight. During the day some even money appeared, but this was so quickly snapped up that the odds were immediately cut down.

The varsity line-up for tomorrow will be! Left end, Hammond; left tackle, Phillips; left guard, Semmens; center, E., Princher, right guard, Semart; right tackle, Baldwin; right end, S. Baker (Lambert or Brown); quarter back, Glick; left half, Law; right half, H. Baker, and full back, Streit.

New York, Nov. 14.—Coach Frank Cavanaugh, of the Dartmouth team, which is quartered here today in preparation for its game with the Carlinle Indians tomorrow, declared that if his team won from the Indians he would lay claim to the football championship of the East.

"If we beat Carlisle—which we expect to do—we will have a clean record for the season, "said Cavanaugh. "We beat Pennsylvania, and we scored a touchdown against Princeton, something Harvard couldn't do. I think that entitles us to the championship,
and if we win tomorrow—we certainly shall claim it."

Maryland Agriculture College Captur

College Park, Md., Nov. It.—The Maryland Agricultural College football team today secured the undisputed title to the State football championship by defeating the team from Washington College by the score of 25 to 0. Today's game wound up the Aggles' schedule with the State teams, and they went through the season without suffering a defeat.
